

Project Manager (cooling/utilities)

Description

- To manage the consultants and contractors in the execution of capital projects while coordinating with clients on matters such as approvals, mobilization, and scheduling to the final process of commissioning and start-up and handover to the user department/client.

Qualifications

- bachelor's degree in mechanical and or any other relevant engineering fields.
- diploma in project management.
- at least 12 years of project management experience in the districts cooling/utilities or similar industry.
- 3-4 years of direct supervisory experience.
- experience in managing multi-disciplinary projects and third party contractors in the executions of projects.

Hiring organization

Roots Management Consultants on Behalf of Customer

Employment Type

Full-time

Job Location

Giza

Date posted

2022 ,1 222222